Champagne

Testulat Blanc de Blanc Brut NV, Vallée de la Marne • 82

Made from 100% chardonnay grapes grown near Épernay. Light and subtle with notes of apple, ripe pear and quince. The palate is seasoned with subtle spices and hints of honeysuckle and grapefruit.

Pol Roger Réserve Brut NV, Epernay • 110

Top non-vintage from one of the last remaining family-owned houses in Champagne. The nose is dominated by white flowers, green apple, brioche and fine minerality. On the palate there's notes of stone fruits, a certain nuttiness and a hint of honey.

Huré Frères Instantanée 2015, Montagne de Reims • 117

A classic vintage cuvee meant to be a reflection of the year. The grapes are sourced from a variety of 1er cru vineyards and the wine is aged on the lees for six years. Rich and complex, with lovely yellow and citrus fruit on the nose and a well defined and focused palate.

Pol Roger Sir Winston Churchill 2013, Epernay • 250

"Rich and remarkably pure, the 2013 is super-expressive right out of the gate. Bright saline notes cut through a core of lemon confit, dried flowers, apricot, tangerine peel, mint and sage. There is a transparency here that is so alluring. The 2013 is a terrific example of power with no excess weight in Champagne." – Antonio Galloni

Sparkling

Landaluce Brut Nature NV, D.O. Cava • 38

The Xarel-lo, Macabeo and Paralleda grapes are grown organically and then vinified separately before being blended by Asier and his team in Rioja Alavesa. No dosage is added before being bottle aged for around 15 months resulting in a dry sparkling with lots of richness.

Artadi Izar-Leku 2017, Zarautz • 68

A joint project between the legendary Rioja producer Artadi and Zapiain, a Basque cider producer. The base wine was aged for one year on lees, with a third of it aging in barrel, it then spent 18 months undergoing tradition sparkling fermentation in bottle. The resulting wine is aromatic, complex and has an attractive saline minerality of the region.

Recaredo Terrers Brut Nature 2017, Penedés • 69

Extended lees ageing and over 48 months of bottle maturation has produced this full-bodied and creamy wine with notes of white flowers, freshly baked bread and citrus.

Gusbourne Brut Reserve 2019, Kent • 84

Bright gold in colour, this blend highlights red fruit aromas of cherry and strawberry which then develop into attractive fresh pastry notes with a touch of cinnamon and spice. With a bright streak of citrus fruit, the palate is clean and fresh whilst giving tons of soft stone fruit and a long, refreshing finish.

Exton Park RB 23 Rosé, Hampshire • 98

Based on Pinot Noir grapes picked in the very ripe year of 2014 and blended with barrel aged Pinot Noir this expressive, round English fizz is creamy with great weight and hints of spice.

White

Bodegas Agerre Txakoli 2021, Getaria • 34

Hand harvesting is key to the traditional winemaking methods of the area. A lively light spritz with green apples and lemons on the palate. Light with refreshing acidity makes this a quintessential traditional Txakoli.

Vina Zorzal Sea of Dreams 2019, Navarra • 37

A blend of Garnacha Blanca and Viura, fermented and aged in concrete eggs to add layers of weight and texture. The nose is richly aromatic, with notes of almond, tarragon, and lemon. On the palate it has enticing notes of mandarin and baked pear with an oily texture and a long, lingering finish. A great alternative to white Rioja.

Bodegas Godeval Godello 2021, Valdeorras • 43

Vines planted on the granite slopes of the mountains of El Barco de Valdeorras produce this wine full of stone fruit and pear notes with great balance between the mineral acidity and the weight of fruit. This was the first 100% Godello ever made to sell.

Herència Altés Benufet 2021, Terra Alta • 49

100% Garnacha Blanca from Catalonia. Fermentation in concrete barrels helps retain the natural acidity and batonnage on fine lees for 2 months brings texture, depth and a slight smokey note. Great alternative to white Burgundy.

Sameiras 1040 2019, Ribeiro • 54

An Atlantic influenced blend of Albariño, Godello, Lado and Treixadura by highly regarded winemaker Oscar Aragón. The juice is aged on its lees in French oak for 6 months producing a complex, structured wine with floral herbal notes and a long finish.

Telmo Rodriguez Mountain Blanco 2019, Malaga • 55

100% Moscatel from high in the mountains that surround Malaga. This delicious dry white has aromas of hay, honey and nectarine and a light spiciness in the nose. In the mouth a round attack but elegant, with refreshing acidity that adds tension.

Can Sumoi Xarel-lo 2021, Penedes • 60

Pear, stone fruits and white flowers dominate this blend of Xarel.lo and Malvasia de Sitges. The chalky and clay soils impart a complex minerality which balances well with the fruit and acidity.

La Casa de las Locas Albariño 2021, Rias Baixas • 62

Albariño grown organically on the banks of the Uria River. Round, mineral and herbal with ripe peach, white flower and baked apple notes. Clean and crisp with wonderfully balanced acidity.

Finca Allende Blanco 2018, Rioja • 69

A blend of meticulously selected old vine Viura and Malvasia, respectively lending texture and aromatics. Aged in tightly grained French oak this wine is juicy and smooth with creamy baked apple notes and a long, fresh finish.

Domaine du Montellet Blanc 2021, Saint-Joseph • 69

Skillfully crafted old vine Marsanne and Roussanne by a rising star in the Northern Rhone, this wine hints of lemon, apricot, peach and marzipan with a textured and generous palate, firm minerality and slight spiciness.

Lagar Do Merens Fermentado en Barrica 2018, Ribeiro • 78

This barrel fermented white is a blend of Treixadura, Lado and Torrontés from lower yields and worked with lees and bâtonnage which adds clout and complexity, character and weight. Alongside, there is good freshness and vibrant flavours.

R López de Heredia Viña Gravonia Blanco Crianza 2013, Rioja • 82

"Layered and complex with notes of herbs and quince, this wine is full of personality. The nuttiness on the palate is balanced by fresh acidity and complimented by jasmine. It's made in an oxidative style, but don't be put off – it's a profound white." – Jane Anson

Clos Mogador Nelin 2018, Priorat • 98

"A Garnacha Blanca-based blend that's fermented with indigenous yeasts. It's spicy and herbal, with notes of chamomile and some aromatic herbs. The palate is very balanced, with a stony and austere sensation, finishing dry. It's lively, vibrant and alive, with expressive flavours and finishing almost salty with a bitter twist" – Robert Parker

Bodegas Tameran Marmajuelo 2021, Gran Canaria • 101

Marmajuelo is a rare grape variety, indigenous to the Canary Islands, that's prized for its potential to produce expressive, fine white wines. This example is initially understated on the nose but blossoms into waves of orchard fruits and white flowers, combined with great length and texture this is almost Burgundian in style.

Suertes del Marqués Vidonia 2020, Tenerife • 104

From four plots, the 100% Listán Blanco (or Palamino) comes from 130-year-old vines. Like a fine Meursault: nutty yet braced by complex, flinty minerals. Round and generous with a slight saline edge this is a limpid wine of shimmering elegance and is deliciously well balanced

R López de Heredia Viña Tondonia Blanco Reserva 2010, Rioja • 110

"This superb, old-vine cuvée from one of Rioja's greatest vineyards is a marriage of Viura and 10% Malvasia that spend six years in barrel before bottling. Richly coloured and intense, it has notes of honey, oyster shell, dried fruits and fresh dough, with wonderful extract and concentration." – Tim Atkin MW

Zarate Tras da Vina Albariño 2020, Rias Baixas • 117

"Wonderful nose that exudes freshness; it features fresh honeysuckle, loquat, freshly squeezed lemons and sea salt. The palate is really on fire, with the acidity taking off and electrifying the fleshy stone fruit on offer. Medium- to full-bodied yet zesty and so tangy on the finish." – James Suckling

Castro Ventosa Valtuille Godello 2020, Bierzo • 130

"This bottling is a selection of the best barrels. It's a little flinty and smoky, a little à la Bourgogne, with some balsamic notes, round and complete, with very tasty flavours and great balance. It's a little riper than the 2019, but also feels deeper and just one step above in everything. This might be the finest white produced here so far." – Luis Gutiérrez

José Pariente Finca Las Comas 2020, Rueda • 130

The Verdejo grapes hail from a 2.43-hectare bush vine vineyard planted in 1910 in the village of La Seca. Intense and creamy on the palate with aromas of fennel, herbaceous plants and a subtle touch of citrus, the wine is elegant and super well balanced.

Remelluri Blanco 2019, Rioja • 134

White Rioja taken to the next level. Butter, walnuts, quince, ginger, cedar and very ripe pears. It shows a lot of character on the palate with a nervous acidity balanced by its deep concentration and creamy, full body.

Terroir Al Límit Pedra de Guix 2019, Priorat • 134

"This shows striking concentration and oxidative complexity that's delivered in a subtle way, with understated aromas of apricot, papaya, cement, honeysuckle, and a hint of turmeric. Flavourful, dry, and quintessential on the medium-bodied palate with a creamy, sleek mouthfeel and a nice caressing bite on the finish. Structured and fresh with medium acidity. Fun to drink now." – James Suckling

Finca Allende Mártires 2020, Rioja • 200

'Smokey oak is the lead aroma on this single-vineyard barrel-fermented Rioja. A round, creamy palate is full in body and supported by oak-based tannins and medium acidity. Lightly salty apple and peach flavours on a round and oaky finish." – Michael Schachner

R López de Heredia Viña Tondonia Blanco Gran Reserva 2001, Rioja • 210

"Wonderful aromas of almonds, nougat, dried peaches and vanilla bean follow through to a full body with a dense palate of ripe fruit and amazing, unique vanilla cream. Some candle wax and light varnish too. Historical taste of Rioja that every wine lover should try." – James Suckling

Rosé

Cillar de Silos Rosado 2022, Ribera del Duero • 38

Light, dry and fresh in the classic Provencal style. Elegant with red berry fruit and a creamy texture with a hint of dried fennel.

4 Kilos Moteur Pistache 2019, Mallorca • 60

A funky, delicious rose somewhere between a light red and a dark rose. Fermented and matured in oak foudre for nine months it has notes of rose hip and hibiscus, herbs and an earthy touch. It's light and refreshing, with pungent flavours and a very good length.

Finca Allende Rosado 2017, Rioja Alta • 68

A blend of Tempranillo and Garnacha, the nose displays fresh red fruit aromas of strawberry, cherry, redcurrant and raspberry. Subtle and soft with bright acidity and a well balanced finish.

R López de Heredia Viña Tondonia Rosado Gran Reserva 2011, Rioja • 130

A very unique wine only made in exceptional vintages, this is the current release. The texture is light yet with a slight oak tannin grip. Sweet strawberries lie in the background but that acidity has an almost tart tangerine quality to it, it is so refreshing. The wine has a beautiful finish of red apple and lemon pith mixing with a touch of almonds.

Red

Bodegas Lanzaga Corriente 2020, Rioja • 41

Mainly Tempranillo with a little Graciano and Garnacha from organically farmed bush vines from vineyards surrounding the village of Lanciego. A lovely mix of dark berries and red fruits with moderate tannins, a touch of spice and a mineral lifted finish.

Gaba do Xil Mencia 2019, Valdeorras • 46

Often compared to Pinot Noir the indigenous Mencia grape performs so well in this area of Northwest Spain. Fresh and aromatic with cherry notes, a touch savory and earthy and a gorgeous lightness of touch.

Dido La Universal 2021, Montsant • 52

A blend of organically grown Garnacha, Syrah, Cariñena, Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon. Floral, expressive, clean and focused, with perfectly integrated oak, all the varieties complement each other, the wine has a juicy palate and has astonishing balance.

Bodegas Traslanzas 2018, Cigales • 58

Aromas of violet, lavender and fruits of the forest are evident on the nose of this 100% Tinto del Pais. Noticeable body is complemented by the sweet tannins and long, aromatic finish.

Siete Pasos Cuenta Ovejas 2018, Toro • 60

A classic Toro crafted from Tinto de Toro grapes, and indigenous variety which can trace its roots back to the Roman invasion of the Duero basin. Powerful yet elegant with blackberry, dark plum, clove, black pepper and vanilla all in perfect harmony.

Pegaso Zeta 2021, Cebreros Sierra de Gredos • 64

Hailing from high in the mountainous Sierra de Gredos this 100% organically grown Garnacha is laden with red current and tangy raspberry, blackberry and fig, soft tannins and a super smooth finish.

Guimaro Finca Meixeman 2019, Ribera Sacra • 65

Made using the grapes of 70-year-old Mencia vines on a single vineyard plot, the Rodriguez family have created a serious wine with a core of kirsch-like red fruit, spice and minerals.

Dominio del Aguila Picaro del Aguila Tinto 2020, Ribera del Duero • 65

A wonderful example of what Ribera del Duero has to offer – black cherry and blackberry fruit, layered with vanilla and spice, fine herbs and florals. Full-bodied and balanced with medium, slightly structured tannins.

Ànima Negra AN/2 2020, Mallorca • 66

A blend of Callet, Mantonegre-Fogoneu and Syrah with complex aromas of savory spices, wild raspberries, dark cherry fruit and a hint of violets and smokiness. On the palate it's silky and elegant with intense flavours of mature fruit. Well-balanced with a long finish.

Señorio de Cuzcurrita Reserva 2018, Rioja Alta • 68

Made from seven hectares of old bush vine Tempranillo grown within the walls of a 14th century castle: the Castillo de Cuzcurrita del Rio Tiron. Aged for 12 months in French oak and with fantastic acidity due to the cooler climes, the wine has excellent balance. Plenty of dark herbs, blackberry fruitiness and well-integrated tannins.

Celler Pardas Collita Rojo 2015, Penedès • 70

From a chemical-free vineyard planted in 1949 and farmed by hand, this is a unique single-varietal Sumoll wine, the ancient indigenous grape. Primary red and dark berries and scents of pungent flowers. Sappy, mineral-tinged raspberry and bitter cherry flavours deepen slowly and become sweeter as the wine opens up. Nicely weighty but vibrant as well, finishing long and juicy.

Joan d'Anguera Finca l'Argata 2019, Montsant • 75

24 hectares are worked bio-dynamically by the seventh generation of the same family using wild yeasts and whole-bunch fermentation. This Garnacha-Syrah blend shows ripe black fruit, spices and smooth fresh tannins.

Casa Castillo Las Gravas 2019, Jumilla • 85

A blend of old vine Monastrell and Garnacha hand picked from the Las Gravas vineyard (gravel in Spanish), which takes its name from the stony topsoil. Smooth, meaty, earthy and mineral with floral violets, pomegranate, juicy dark fruit, black cherry, hints of blood orange and exotic spices.

Suertes del Marqués La Suertes 2019, Tenerife • 88

From a single parcel of Listán Negro interplanted with a small amount of Listán Blanco, the vineyard named after a centenary plum tree that grows alongside. Very fine, fresh, peppery and aromatic, and extremely elegant on the palate. The renowned winemaker Jonatan Garcia describes it as a volcanic Nebbiolo.

Bodega Mustiguillo Finca Terrerazo 2020, Valencia • 91

Organically farmed Bobal grapes are fermented with indigenous yeasts and then aged in large oak vats for 18 months producing a delicious wine with body, elegance, purity and fine tannins.

Palacios Remondo Propiedad 2020, Rioja • 99

Crafted from 100% de-stemmed Garnacha fermented in oak vats and aged in oak barrels for 14 months. With aromas of roses and liquorice leading to the full-bodied palate with chunky plum and black fruit notes, fine-grained tannins and good acidity.

Castro Ventosa Valtuille Cepas Centenarias 2019, Bierzo • 108

Expertly crafted by Raul Perez at his family estate in Galicia, this is mainly from extremely old Mencia vines, aged for 11 months in French oak. Although the palate is medium bodied there are very intense flavours and great power, balance and a super long finish.

Clos I Terrasses Laurel 2020, Priorat • 108

This is the second wine to the much-heralded Clos Erasmus, coming from the younger vines in the small biodynamic vineyards. Complex herbs, oaky spice and chocolate richness dominate the palate alongside charming, opulent fruit.

R López de Heredia Viña Tondonia Reserva Tinto 2009, Rioja • 108

Wonderful, traditional, elegant Rioja, a result of Tondonia's extending ageing process (bottled after six years in oak barrels). Aromas of spice, leather, cherries and cigar box precede the round and crisp palate with a luxurious mouth feel and intense core of flavour.

Bodega Valdaya 2019, Ribera del Duero • 110

"The straight Valdaya release is made with fruit from three different soil types in remote, high-altitude Baños de Valdearados. Intensely floral and refined as Marta Ramas and Miguel Fisac's wines always are, this is a polished Ribera with chalky intensity, fine-boned tannins and layers of plum and blueberry fruit." – Tim Atkin

Psi 2013, Ribera del Duero • 110

"A wine with clarity and freshness. Medium to full body, fine tannins and a clean and long finish. Very balanced and delicate. Crisp yet fruity. Nice austerity. Almost all old vines of 50 years or more. From the owner of Pingus. Aged in 10,000 litre casks. Tinto fino and 12% Garnacha." – James Suckling

Bodegas Frontonio Electricidad Garage Wine VIII 2019, Aragón • 110

An extremely small production one off project by Master of Wine Fernando Mora. Mazuele (Carignan) and Macabeo are co fermented producing a wine similar in style to a fine Côte-Rôtie. A complex wine with layered flavours of rose petals, mocha, raspberries and blackcurrants.

Artadi Valdegines 2018, Rioja • 112

"This is elegant and nuanced, subtle and insinuating, cool and harmonious. I like very much the character of this vineyard that in 2018 seems accentuated by the style of the year. It has very fine tannins and great harmony in the palate with a fine, velvety texture. This is my favourite vineyard in this price range. Elegant and fresh." – Robert Parker

Ànima Negra AN 2018, Mallorca • 128

"Deep in flavour, polished in texture, and intensely evocative, Ànima Negra's exceptional cuvée spends 18 months in new French oak, but the character of the old Callet vines shines through. A glimpse of the Med, with flashes of fresh fig and leafy herb, a touch of balsamic and olive, and a flash of red fruit. Long and fine." – David Williams

Remelluri Granja Reserva 2014, Rioja • 130

"The DNA of Remelluri is here. Wild mountain herb character, structured and firm, these tannins are succulent and deeply expressive. Powerful and assertive red plums, wild cherries and roasting herbs with the oak sitting well. Power and balance." – James Suckling

Terroir Al Limit Arbossar 2020, Priorat • 136

"Wow. This is so beautiful with crushed cherry and strawberry character and hints of flowers and slate. Full to medium body, tight and dense with compact and silky tannins. Floral and beautiful at the end. Ancient-vine wine. All caríñena." – James Suckling

Cerrado del Castillo Reserva 2016, Rioja • 140

"Full-bodied and fresh, featuring cherry and wild current flavours, leather and fragrant herb elements. Mineral and spice accents linger on the finish, with well integrated tannins." – Wine Spectator

Clos Mogador Manyetes 2018, Priorat • 144

"The pure Cariñena 2018 Manyetes is now a Vi de Paratge, not only a village wine as in the past, in the new classification of Priorat wines. The wine is not as concentrated as it has been in some warmer years; it's definitely fresher, with more minerality, black stones, graphite and wet slate. This has abundant tannins and some earthy sensations. It's a powerful wine with some rusticity and a strong personality" – Luis Guitérrez

Clos Mogador 2019, Priorat • 144

"The flagship and eponymous 2019 Clos Mogador is nothing short of phenomenal. As I see in other wines from 2019, the wine has lots of everything, stuffing, power and concentration but also balance. This has to be one of the finest vintages ever for Mogador." – Robert Parker

Finca Allende Mingoritz 2015, Rioja • 141

"The 2015 Mingoritz is pure Tempranillo from an organically farmed vineyard in Briones that gives the wine its name. It's ripe but harmonious, modern, clean and expressive, with the chalky tannins that give that serious mouthfeel." – Thomas Matthews

Pintia 2017, Toro • 150

"Lots of spices and bright fruit for such a ripe, hot vintage. Some orange-peel undertones. Full-bodied and layered with beautiful fruit and length. Really nicely done." – James Suckling

Las Alas de Frontonio La Tejera 2019, Valdejalón • 150

"This is aromatic and elegant, ethereal, perfumed- I have never noticed such elegance in this wine before. The palate is very elegant, with very fine tannins and subdued minerality, long, elegant. It has electric minerality and citrus freshness. This was a revelation, full of energy." – Luis Gutiérrez

Espectacle 2019, Montsant • 155

"A ripe and classic vintage for this exceptional wine produced from a single vineyard. This has a forward personality- open, expressive and showy on the nose- from a typically warm and ripe year that resulted in a voluptuous and hedonistic Espectable that's easy to like." – Luis Gutiérrez

Bodegas Benjamin Rothschild and Vega Sicilia Macan 2017, Rioja • 160

"Focused without being showy, this is somewhat subdued at first and opens slowly in the glass. Offers a core of bitter cherry, macerated strawberry, medicinal herbs and smoke backed by orange peel acidity and dense tannins. A good showing from a challenging vintage." – Alison Napjus

Bodega Lanzaga 'Tabuérniga' 2019, Rioja • 170

"This is showing real depth and purity with freshness and precision. Subtle, spiced blueberries, black cherries, oyster-shell minerality, dried flowers and wild herbs on the nose, following through to a full-bodied palate that's full of vertical, dusty tannins. Powerful, tense and long, but never hefty. From organically grown grapes." – James Suckling

Alión 2018, Ribera del Duero • 170

"Fresh and very floral with violets and berries. Blackberries and orange peel, too. Medium to full-bodied with firm, linear tannins. Excellent length and structure." – James Suckling

Vega Sicilia Valbuena 2017, Ribera del Duero • 220

"Gorgeous aromas of blackberries, black chocolate and shitake mushrooms follow through to a full body with round, plush tannins that are corduroy in texture. The flavours are intense, but not overdone." – James Suckling

Clos Erasmus 2019, Priorat • 220

"This is a very elegant and perfumed vintage for Clos Erasmus, a wine that reveals a bright ruby colour and an exotic nose that mixes flowers with tons of sweet spices. The palate is textured and velvety, lace and dust, with fine-grained tannins that bring back memories of slate rocks. 99 points". – Luis Gutiérrez

Vega Sicilia Unico 2012, Ribera del Duero • 380

"Gorgeous aromas of blackberries, black chocolate and shitake mushrooms follow through to a full body with round, plush tannins that are corduroy in texture. The flavours are intense, but not overdone." – James Suckling

Magnum

Red

Remelluri Reserva 2012, Rioja • 145

"Deep ruby. Ripe red berries, dried flowers, illicit herb and smoky minerals on the exotically perfumed nose. The palate offers spicy, penetrating, concentrated flavours of black raspberry, cherry compote and floral pastilles, with a zesty mineral quality building in the glass. Shows excellent clarity and intensity on the very long, floral, gently tannic finish." - Jancis Robinson

R López de Heredia Viña Tondonia Reserva 2009, Rioja • 210

Wonderful, traditional, elegant Rioja, a result of Tondonia's extending ageing process (bottled after six years in oak barrels). Aromas of spice, leather, cherries and cigar box precede the round and crisp palate with a luxurious mouth feel and intense core of flavour.

Bodegas Pintia 2017, Toro • 270

"Lots of spices and bright fruit for such a ripe, hot vintage. Some orange-peel undertones. Full-bodied and layered with beautiful fruit and length. Really nicely done." – James Suckling

Macán 2016, Rioja • 285

"They think this 2016 is finally the style they were looking for, a wine with density and freshness. This could very well be the finest vintage of Macán so far." – Luis Gutiérrez

Alión 2017, Ribera del Duero • 298

"It's a classical Alión, with some developed aromas, juicy and round but not heavy, with just a tad of earthy rusticity. With time it develops more balsamic notes and hints of licorice." – Luis Gutiérrez

Vega Sicilia Valbuena 2017, Ribera del Duero • 384

"Gorgeous aromas of blackberries, black chocolate and shitake mushrooms follow through to a full body with round, plush tannins that are corduroy in texture. The flavours are intense, but not overdone." – James Suckling

Jeroboam

Red

Clos Mogador 2013, Priorat • 540

"Lively and expressive, this red delivers ripe cherry and boysenberry flavours, backed by mountain herbs, liquorice and mineral notes. The rich texture is balanced by lively acidity and fine-grained tannins. There's plenty of stuffing, but the wine remains graceful and fresh." – Thomas Matthew

Sweet

Wine (75ml)

Clos Lapeyre "La Magendia" 2018, Jurançon • 7

Hailing from near to Biarritz this dessert wine is made of late-harvested botrytised Petit Manseng grapes. Medium bodied on the palate with a 'fat' texture leading to tropical fruit flavours that are balanced by spicy wood notes.

Telmo Rodriguez MR White 2020, Malaga • 9

"It's perfumed, expressive and with the character of Molino Real, with less complexity, with the notes of bay leaf and condensed milk, balanced, rich, expressive and long, not too sweet." – Luis Gutiérrez

Alta Alella Dolç Materó 2019, Alella • 11

Organic sweet red wine made from the late-harvested indigenous Catalan variety Mataró. Notes of candied plums, dried figs and blackberries and a wonderful balance between the soft tannins, acidity and sweetness.

Telmo Rodriguez Molino Real 2017, Malaga • 18

"It's very intense on the palate, sweet but with a kind of lightness that makes it more aerial, not ethereal but not heavy at all and with freshness. It keeps the level in this very unusual year." – Luis Gutiérrez

Fortified (50 ml)

Quinta da Pedra Alta "Pedra No. 03 White Port, Douro • 6

The palate is lightly spiced with candied peel, orange marmalade, peach and fresh lemon citrus, supported by a good seam of acidity leading to a crisp finish with herbal hints.

Emilo Hidalgo PX NV, Jerez • 7

Drying the Pedro Ximenez grapes on straw mats helps to create a wine of unsurpassed sweetness. On the nose there's molasses, toffee and Christmas pudding notes. The palate is incredibly thick and dense with flavours of raisins, figs, caramel, nuts and toffee.

Smith Woodhouse 10-year Tawny Port, Douro • 7

A perfect tawny colour gained through ageing in small oak barrels. Full of plum and raisin aromas with a long deep finish, slightly less sweet than the norm.

Lustau East India Solera, Jerez • 8

An intriguing blend of Palamino Fino and Pedro Ximenez aged separately for 12 years and then married together for the final three. Rich and full bodied with notes of prune, burnt-orange peel, spice and nuts.

Warre's Quinta de Cavadinha 2005, Douro • 10

A lovely single Quinta just entering its drinking window. Seductive flavours of black plums and cherries, with an elegant long and complex finish.

Lustau Pedro Ximenez VORS 30 Year Old, Jerez • 25

This superb Pedro Ximenez comes from one cask selected from a Solera of six set aside as a family reserve in the 1930's. Dense and complex with notes of fig, raisin, liquorice and hints of roasted coffee. On the palate dominate notes of toasted caramel, liquorice, nuts and bitter chocolate.
